<https://adarsh-kumar-gupta.vercel.app>

I'm a third-year college student specializing in the MERN stack, proficient in Next.js, MongoDB, and Node.js. Skilled in web app development, code optimization, and server-side logic, I offer a solid foundation from 1000+ hours of bootcamp training in JavaScript, React, and Node.js. My proactive attitude, dedication to excellence, and knack for development make me a valuable asset to any development team. Outside coding, I enjoy exploring new JavaScript frameworks and quality time with friends.
